The Trilateral Opioid Contract: Bridging the Pain Clinic and the Primary Care Physician Through the Opioid Contract [1]

The Trilateral Opioid Contract: Bridging the Pain Clinic and the Primary Care Physician Through the Opioid Contract [2]

Description: An article discussing the incorporation of the primary care physician (PCP) into the opioid treatment contract along with the patient and the pain specialist. It also describes how the contract may be an effective tool for networking the specialty and primary care upon the use of opioid therapy. Authors: Scott M. Fishman, Gagan Mahajan, Sung-Won Jung, and Barth L. Wilsey.
